BASIC-ABSTRACT:

NOVELTY - A same day delivery system is provided to rapidly deliver the products, ordered via a phone or the Internet, at a home, a company or designated places by making local delivery center directly pick up the products without passing through the logistics system of conventional delivery companies.

DETAILED DESCRIPTION - The method comprises steps of dividing nationwide area into local area to make one day delivery possible, installing local delivery centers for selling or delivering goods at the divided local area, ordering the local center nearest to a delivery destination over an online network to deliver the goods ordered by the user, and making the local center directly pick up the ordered goods and deliver them to the destination place designated by the user.
